1: Executive Summary

1. The Commission for Communications Regulation (ComReg) is the statutory body responsible for the regulation of the electronic communications sector (telecommunications, radio communications, broadcasting transmission and premium rate services) and the postal sector. It is the responsibility of ComReg to inform and protect consumers, encourage innovation and to facilitate competition.
2. ComReg's Consumer Care team manage all direct contacts from consumers of electronic communications services (ECS), premium rate services (PRS) and postal services and consumers may contact our Consumer Line using a variety of methods, including phone, email, SMS, online form, webchat, post and Irish Sign Language.<sup>1</sup>
3. ComReg receives a high volume of contacts from consumers and a number of these contacts are classified as queries where we provide information to consumers on how to handle their issue with their service provider in the first instance. It is acknowledged, however, that some issues are often left unresolved and ComReg's Consumer Care team can assist consumers in having these unresolved issues, classed by ComReg as complaints, managed through to resolution where possible with their Service Provider. More information on ComReg's complaint handling procedures can be found in our complaints handling guide which is available on our website.<sup>2</sup>
4. ComReg publishes quarterly statistics in respect of the issues raised by consumers who contact our Consumer Line. This publication reflects the period from 1 October 2017 to 31 December 2017. All incidences of consumers contacting ComReg's Consumer Line were recorded with the individual issue being classified under one of the main categories as set out in Annex 2.
5. This publication provides detail in relation to both the number and type of issues which consumers contacted our Consumer Line with during Q4 2017 and also includes details of total issues recorded in Q3 2017 and/or since Q4 2016, for comparative purposes.
6. The report highlights that the overall number of issues recorded by ComReg's Consumer Line has decreased since Q3 2017, with this figure also lower than the equivalent in Q4 2016. The ratio of complaints to queries increased from Q3 2017

2: Consumer Contacts, Satisfaction and Open Cases

8. ComReg offers a variety of methods for consumers to contact our Consumer Line including phone, email, SMS, online form, webchat, post and Irish Sign Language.
9. In Q4 2017, approximately 16,500 consumers contacted ComReg's Consumer Line. Figure 2 below shows the split of these contacts by contact type, highlighting that the most popular method of contact was via phone, with almost 50% of contacts received via this method.

10. Consumers who contact ComReg's Consumer Line via phone are presented with the option to provide feedback through a short survey at the end of their call. The survey consists of 5 questions and consumers are asked to rank their responses using a scale of 1 – 5.<sup>6</sup>

<sup>6</sup> Consumers respond to the questions outlined in Figure 3 overleaf by pressing 1 – 5 on their telephone keypad. 1 is the lowest option available to choose, thus expressing dissatisfaction, and 5 is the highest option, expressing satisfaction.

11. Of the 8,245 consumers who contacted the Consumer Line via phone in Q4 2017, 4.5%<sup>7</sup> (371) fully completed the consumer survey. Figure 3 below details the questions contained in the survey and the results.

12. As at 31 December 2017, 438 consumer cases were open. Of this number, 212 were open 10 working days or less, which is within the time line for service providers to respond to their customer and to ComReg in respect of individual complaints. The remaining 226 consumer cases were open more than 10 working days awaiting responses from service providers<sup>8</sup>, with 88% of these relating to ECS issues and 12% relating to PRS issues.

3: All Issues Recorded

The trend in figure 6 below shows that, compared with Q3 2017, there was an overall decrease of 6% in the number of issues recorded. This decrease can largely be attributed to the volume of PRS issues, which reduced by 32% from 2,638 in Q3 2017 to 1,798 in Q4 2017. Although there was a decrease in the overall number of issues recorded, ECS issues (including Not for ComReg) increased by 11% from Q3 2017 to Q4 2017.
