Media Release – 02 April 2008

ComReg extends deadline for responses to draft Strategy for Managing the Radio Spectrum 2008 - 2010

The Commission for Communications Regulation (ComReg) has today announced that the deadline for the submission of responses to its proposed strategy for Managing the Radio Spectrum: 2008 – 2010 has been extended to 2 May, 2008, following requests from interested parties.

The proposed strategy is a detailed paper which will shape ComReg's policies in relation to the management of wireless spectrum for the coming years. Accordingly, ComReg is happy to extend the response period on this occasion.

ComReg welcomes the views and comments of all interested parties on the issues raised in the Consultation (Document Number 08/20) which is available on the ComReg website, www.comreg.ie.
