Additional Information

Document No:	23/104
Date:	09/11/2023

1. The Commission for Communications Regulation (‘ComReg’) is the statutory body responsible for the regulation of the electronic communications sector (telecommunications, radio-communications, and broadcasting transmission) in Ireland.
2. By letter of 9 March 2023 Eircom sought ComReg’s approval under Section 7.7(ii) of the Decision Instrument at Appendix 20 of ComReg Decision D10/18 of 19 November 2018¹ to withdraw access to the desktop and field survey facilities available to Access Seekers.
3. Having considered Eircom’s request ComReg has decided to not accede to this request. Accordingly, Eircom may not withdraw the desktop and field survey facilities which will remain available to Access Seekers availing of Access in accordance with Eircom’s Access Reference Offer.

¹ Wholesale Local Access at a Fixed Location (ComReg Document No 18/94, Appendix 20 Decision No D10/18).
