Additional Information

Document No:	23/69
Date:	21/07/2023

1. The Commission for Communications Regulation (‘ComReg’) is the statutory body responsible for the regulation of the electronic communications sector (telecommunications, radio-communications, and broadcasting transmission) in Ireland.
2. By letter of 7 April 2022 Eircom sought ComReg’s approval under Section 7.7(ii) of the Decision Instrument at Appendix 20 of ComReg Decision D10/18 of 19 November 2018<sup>1</sup> to withdraw access to the Duct and Pole reservation order facility available to Access Seekers.
3. Having considered Eircom’s request ComReg has decided to reject this request. Eircom accordingly may not withdraw the reservation order facility which will accordingly remain available to Access Seekers availing of Access in accordance with Eircom’s Access Reference Offer.
