Context and Background

1. Following a review of information gathered during compliance monitoring and following a review of consumer complaints received by ComReg in relation to Zamano Solutions Ltd. (“Zamano”) WinClub (“WinClub”) single charge premium rate service (PRS”), ComReg commenced an investigation into the provision of the WinClub PRS in accordance with Section 9 of the Communications Regulations (Premium Rate Services and Electronic Communications Infrastructure) Act, 2010¹ (“the Act of 2010”) and Sections 10(1)(d)(ii) and 12(1)(d) of the Communications Regulation Act, 2002, as amended² (“the Act of 2002”).
2. Zamano’s WinClub PRS is a single charge (i.e. non-subscription) service. According to Zamano, end users who engage with the PRS have the opportunity to win a prize for example, an Apple Ipad or iPhone 5. The total cost of the service is €15 per entry. The price of the service is charged by way of six reverse-billed SMS or WAP messages at €2.50 per message on the 57030 short code number.

Investigation

3. Following the investigation, ComReg found that Zamano’s WinClub PRS was promoted and operated in a manner which may have encouraged end users into making a transactional decision they may not have otherwise taken. ComReg found the WinClub PRS was promoted in a misleading manner by influencing end users into believing that they had won a prize, though this was not the case, through the use of:
 - a. the inclusion of well-known social media logo's and/or icon on promotions;
 - b. the use of misleading phrases/statements such as "You Won" indicating a prize has already been won
 - c. the inclusion of a countdown clock in promotion, inferring that a selection must quickly be made; and,
 - d. false testimonials and photographs of previous winners.

Findings of non-compliance

4. Accordingly, on 24 June 2015³, ComReg notified Zamano of the findings⁴ that it had not complied with Sections 3.12(b), 3.19, 3.22, 4.1, 4.2 and 4.28 (b, c and d) of the Code for PRS providers and, therefore, was in breach of a condition of its PRS licence⁵.

Conclusion

5. Zamano is required to remedy the non-compliance in respect of the breaches of the Code by 24 July 2015 and to make refunds to end users connected to the non-compliance by a date to be specified by ComReg.
