1 Invitation to Tender

1.1 Requirement

Provision of professional technical services:-

- To analyse the technical implications of liberalisation of the 900MHz and 1800MHz GSM bands, taking into account the expiry dates and conditions contained in the existing Irish GSM licences on behalf of the Commission for Communications Regulation ('The Commission').
- To submit an interim and subsequent final written report to the Commission for Communications Regulation.

1.2 Awarding Authority

The Commission for Communications Regulation
Block DEF
Abbey Court
Irish Life Centre
Lower Abbey Street
Dublin 1
Ireland

1.3 Overview of the Requirement

The Commission has responsibility under the Communications Regulation Act, 2002 as Amended, for the issue of licences and General Authorisations for wireless telegraphy, electronic communications services and infrastructure. These include licences issued to mobile telephony networks using both the 2G (GSM) and 3G (IMT 2000) standards. Each operator's licence contains standard provisions obliging the licensee to offer a guaranteed minimum (QoS) and to meet certain specified minimum roll-out requirements. The requirements contained in the license and licence durations are contained in the documents detailed in Appendix 3 of this document.

The purpose of this tender is to analyse the technical implications of the liberalisation of the 900MHz and 1800MHz GSM bands, taking into account the expiry dates and conditions of existing GSM licences on behalf of the Commission. As such prospective tenderers will be required to demonstrate their knowledge of these documents in their proposed tender.

The Commission now invites tenders from suitably qualified companies to provide these professional services. The successful tenderer(s) will be required, subject to contract, to carry out this analysis on the Commission's behalf.

Tenderers must clearly demonstrate their ability to conduct the analysis, as required and provide written reports on the results by documenting, as relevant, the following:-

- An understanding of the Requirement;

- The professional qualifications and relevant training of the proposed project personnel and support personnel;
- The details of the equipment and or modelling tools to be used on the project;
- A knowledge of relevant European initiatives for spectrum liberalisation in these bands including those at the European Commission (EC), the Conference of European Postal and Telecommunications Administrations (CEPT) and in any other European States.
- Samples of similar work completed to date.

1.4 Provision of Information

The Commission proposes to release the following information relating to this tender, on request:

- The name and address of the successful tenderer, and
- Overall contract value of the successful tender

Note that under the Freedom of Information Act, 1997 (as amended) information provided in this tender may be liable to be disclosed where a request is made for access to records and the public interest value of releasing such information is deemed to outweigh the right to confidentiality. Tenderers must specify to the Commission any information which they do not wish to be disclosed. The Commission will consult with the tenderer supplying confidential information before making any decision on releasing such information in response to a request under the Freedom of Information Act 1997 (as amended).

The Commission undertakes to hold confidential any information provided by tenderers subject to:-

- Disclosure of the information specified above as being information that will be released on request, and
- The Commission's obligations under law, including the Freedom of Information Act, 1997 (as amended).

1.5 Tender and Contractual Arrangements

Tenders must adhere to the format set out in Section 4 and must be completed in the English language.

The solution offered may involve the provision of services from either a single party or a group/consortium of bidders. Where a bid is based on a group/consortium of business interests, the tender response document must identify:-

- The prime partner in the group/consortium;
- The number of parties involved and names of each party; and

- The proposed arrangements for its operation e.g. the area of participation of each party in the context of the contract in question.

Where a bid from a group or consortium of bidders is selected as the preferred bid, the Commission will enter into negotiations with a view to concluding a contract with a prime contractor within that group or consortium, who will then take responsibility for all matters arising under the contract.

The Commission reserves the right to select individual components from tender(s) and upon agreement with the tenderer to comprise a total solution as relevant.

The response document must contain the tenderer's best and final offer for the award of contract. All prices must be quoted in Euro and be provided inclusive and exclusive of VAT.

2 Requirements of Contract

2.1 General Requirements

This specification contains details of the minimum requirements. Tenders must clearly demonstrate that these requirements can be met. Proposals above the minimum, should be detailed in the response, may attract extra marks, however any associated costs must be detailed separately.

Service providers must have a proven track record and capability for providing a professional, high quality, accurate and compliant service similar to the services required in this Invitation to Tender (ITT).

Award of the contract will be dependent upon compliance by the successful tenderer with the tax clearance requirement of Irish public sector contracts procedures (which are subject to Article 45 of EU Directive 2004/18/EC relating to procedures for the award of public service contracts) and relevant statutory taxation requirements in relation to taxation of professional services provided to the public sector.

Tenderers are required to provide a statement that none of the circumstances listed in paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 45 of EU Directive 2004/18/EC apply to them (copy of Article 45 attached at Appendix 2).

It should be noted that the Commission reserves the right to cancel the competition should it see fit to do so.

The Commission will retain all intellectual property rights over all documents, records and reports produced (electronic and hard copy) and all such material shall be returned to The Commission upon the completion of the contract.

2.2 Specific Requirements

The purpose of this tender is to engage the services of an experienced and suitably qualified professional contractor to analyse the technical implications of liberalisation of the 900MHz and 1800MHz GSM bands, taking into account the expiry dates of existing GSM licences on behalf of the Commission.

This is to include;

- The amount of spectrum required by each existing licensee, to ensure the continuation of their existing GSM service, while migrating customers to a 3G-service without compromising their GSM QoS obligations.
- Consider possible scenarios for re-assigning of current licensees in the 900MHz and 1800MHz bands taking into account type of equipment currently deployed including user terminals, their current positions in each band and the difference in expiry dates.
- An estimation of the costs involved (operational and capital) and timescale involved in retuning GSM 900 sites taking into account the operator's equipment, and including the scenario where an operator does not get the most optimal (i.e., minimum change in frequency) frequency allocation.

- The typical (GSM/3G) traffic balance required for an operator to consider self migration from GSM to 3G, This should be assessed across the network, then on a regional/base station controller level.
- The minimum amount of spectrum required by a new entrant into the mobile market to establish a viable service in the 900MHz and 1800MHz bands, considering the range of mobile wireless technologies available for this purpose.
- An assessment of whether roaming conditions should be imposed in this band and what should be contained in these conditions.
- An estimation of the most flexible size of frequency block for assignment, e.g., 1.25, 2.5, 5 or 10 MHz blocks or other possible frequency arrangements, both in terms of spectrum efficiency, taking into account any current, new mobile or other technologies that could be deployed, and the relative economic value of individual blocks of spectrum including the scenario where there is an overlap between a spectrum block currently assigned to GSM and the optimal block size for an operator going forward.
- Benchmarking the conclusions with any similar work undertaken in any other CEPT Administration or European Member State.
- The further examination and if necessary the adaptation of the conclusions to take into account any relevant further information supplied to the successful tenderer by the Commission.

2.2.1 Reports to Be Submitted

The successful tenderer will produce, an interim and final report detailing the conclusions of the study, including all justification, modelling and assumptions used in reaching these conclusions. The exact format of each report will be detailed in the contract and as such communicated to the successful tenderer.

The tenderer must submit;

- a. All electronic reports, in MS Word and Adobe PDF format, using a template, as agreed in advance with the Commission,
- b. A back up electronic copy of the reports on a CDROM, and
- c. A printed and bound copy of each complete report.

2.2.2 Price Quoted

The price submitted in tenders must be inclusive of all costs associated with the project including the preparation and if necessary the presentation of the written reports to the Commission, as well as any travel and accommodation costs the tenderer estimates are necessary.

Note: The total price submitted in tenders must not exceed the threshold (€7,000 Inc VAT)

2.2.3 Equipment and software

The successful tenderer will be responsible for procuring all of the necessary equipment and software modelling required to complete the analysis to a satisfactory standard.

2.3 Location and Confidentiality

The successful tenderer will be required to work alongside Commission staff and advisers from time to time. Where face to face meetings are required these will be held at the Commission's premises in Dublin unless otherwise agreed by the Commission. The confidentiality of the work will be protected at all times.

2.4 Duration of the Assignment

The following timescale indicates key deadlines in the project:

Results of Tendering Process to be communicated to all parties by the end of June 2008 or as soon as possible thereafter; and

- Target date for commencement of the project: Beginning of July 2008;
- Target date for the submission of the first report, 15 August 2008, second report 12 September 2008.

It is intended to put the contract in place for the period June 2008 to December 2008

2.5 Other Information

In general the successful tenderer:

- Will be required to comply with the requirements for the awards of Irish public sector contracts;
- Must agree to a confidentiality agreement covering the organisation and the individuals assigned to the project (see Appendix 1); and
- Must enter into a formal and binding contract for the work specifications required.

Application for the above Certificate may be made to the Irish Revenue Commissioners by way of a standard form which will be provided to the successful tenderer by the Commission in due course.

Where a certificate expires during the course of the contract, the Commission will require a renewed certificate or statement. All payments under the contract will be conditional on contractors being in possession of valid certificates at all times. In addition, all payments will be subject to Withholding Tax as laid down by the Revenue Commissioners.

The terms "registerable interest" and "relative" shall be interpreted as per section 2 of the Ethics in Public Office Act 1995.

3.3 Duration of Contract

It is intended that this Invitation to Tender will give rise to a contract for the provision of the services in question, to The Commission from the date of commencement of the contract for a period ending on 31 December 2008.
