1 Notes for Applicants

1. In accordance with the Wireless Telegraphy Act, 1926, the appropriate licence must be held to cover possession or use of radio equipment. Possession or use of radio equipment without a licence is an offence which renders the offender liable to prosecution and, on conviction, fines and confiscation of equipment.
2. This application form sets out the standard information that is required for a Third Party Business Radio (TPBR) licence. In certain cases, the Commission for Communications Regulation may seek further information or clarification from the applicant.
3. The TPBR scheme is open to all interested parties.
4. Interested parties may apply for TPBR licences for all channels that are currently assigned one month prior to the licence expiry date, however the new licence will not commence until the current licence has expired. (See Annex 1 of ComReg Document 05/82R5 for full details of licence expiry dates).
5. An application cannot be processed until ComReg has received a complete application. To submit a valid application, it is necessary to:
 - complete all sections of the Application Form
 - submit the full licence fee with the application
6. If there is insufficient space available on the application form, please attach any additional information on a separate sheet(s), indicating the appropriate section and question.
7. The fee for a TPBR licence is €5,000 per 12.5 kHz paired channel.
8. Application forms not adequately completed cannot be considered as valid applications and may be returned to the applicant, unless the applicant corrects the application in a timely manner. Guidance for TPBR applications is given in ComReg Document 05/82R5.
9. Applications for a TPBR licence must be submitted to the following email address:
